NA Step III in Writing

Answer these questions;

VI 1. What have you learned about your self by working this step?

2. Do you want to have a God that you understand?

3. Did you have problems writing this step, if so, what were they. How did you work through them. (Pray, call your sponsor, share at meetings, etc.)

VII Re-read your first three steps and the Basic text step 1-3 and write a summary of them and how they apply to you now and before coming to NA.

VIII At the end of Step 3 in the text it states, "We now know we cannot pause in our spiritual program; we want all we can get. We are now ready for our first honest self appraisal, we begin with Step Four.

Is this a true statement for you? If you answer yes, then answer the following question.

Do I believe that I have been honest and thorough in writing these first 3 steps, and Do I believe that
